Mr. Knapp:

Thank you for your email. The City of Lorain has produced all records responsive to your two requests related to June of 2023 and July of 2023 emails. To reiterate, the Lorain Police Department is the custodian of records for employees of the Lorain Police Department. I do not know who the record custodian is for the Ohio CSWMFT Board. Again, you may inquire directly with the members of the Board for that information.

Thank you.

Dear Mr. LaVeck,

Thank you for your recent response. I acknowledge your statement that the City of Lorain is not the repository of investigatory records related to the email chain in question. However, I must reiterate that the obligation to clarify and produce public records under

R.C. 149.43 is not satisfied by vague referrals or repeated disclaimers of knowledge, especially when:

- The alleged “investigation” was publicly referenced by Chief McCann in an official capacity;
- City employees, using City systems and representing City departments, corresponded with state agencies regarding me personally and professionally;
- These communications appear to have led to professional consequences that I am entitled to understand and document.

In particular:

1. Nature of the Investigation: It remains unclear what, if any, internal inquiry or administrative action was undertaken within the City or its police department, and whether it was communicated formally or informally to the Ohio CSWMFT Board.
2. Use of City Resources: If any complaint or communication was sent via city email servers or on city time, such communication constitutes a public record under Ohio law. If the City is disclaiming all authorship or responsibility, I ask for that to be stated clearly and unequivocally.
3. Reasonable Identification of the Custodian: Simply pointing to “other persons on the chain” is insufficient. R.C. 149.43(B)(2) obligates a public office to assist in identifying the custodian of records when the requester is unable to determine that on their own. You are in a better position to determine this than I am.

At this point, the City has had ample time and opportunity to comply or to explain its position with the specificity required by law. If no additional records or clarifications are forthcoming, please treat this as my final notice of intent to file a complaint under R.C. 2743.75 with the Ohio Court of Claims. I will also be preserving all legal claims related to retaliation, civil rights violations, and violations of the Ohio Public Records Act.

Respectfully,

Thank you for your email. The City of Lorain is not the repository of any relevant investigatory records. As you know, the other individuals on the referenced email chain are members of the Ohio CSWMFT Board. Further, as you know, any investigative material that the Board possesses are confidential – you have specifically said so yourself in prior correspondence. The Lorain Police Department is the custodian of records for employees within the Lorain Police Department. I do not know who the custodian of records for the Ohio CSWMFT Board is, though you may contact them directly for further inquiry.

Mr. LaVeck,

Thank you for your response. While I appreciate your referral to others on the email chain, the City—specifically your office—is still obligated to clarify the public record status of any referenced “investigation,” especially when prior correspondence from Chief McCann directly stated that such an investigation was “ongoing.”

To that end, I respectfully reiterate the following:

1. Clarification Required: What exactly was the nature and scope of the “investigation” referred to by Chief McCann? Was it internal, administrative, or external in nature? Who initiated it, and what agency or department led or documented it?
2. Record Custodianship: If you are not the custodian of those records, I ask that you identify the appropriate department or individual who is. Referring me to unnamed individuals “on the chain” is insufficient under R.C. 149.43, which requires a good faith effort to identify and produce public records.
3. Email Record Obligation: As stated previously, any record—including emails—created by public employees using public resources, which document official actions or communications (even informal investigations), are presumptively public unless a specific statute exempts them. No such exemption has been clearly cited regarding the supposed investigation.

If the City maintains no documentation whatsoever of this investigation, that in itself is concerning and raises further questions regarding procedure and accountability.

Absent a more complete response, I will move forward with a complaint to the Ohio Court of Claims pursuant to R.C. 2743.75, and preserve all rights under the Ohio Public Records Act.

Respectfully,

Aaron Christopher Knapp, LSW, CDCA, BSSW

It seems there are replies that then Chief McCann was asking for.
Any responses the chief received sent or received in regards to this.

And I can ask the Department but can you clarify who Lt. Tim Thompson is?

And can you provide the attachments that were sent with that email. It states he sent attachments.
