

To whom it may concern:

The attached information is connected to a series of dates in which the current Chief of Police at the Lorain police department was paid when he was not at work.

On 12/2/19 James McCann became the chief of police of the Lorain police. For months prior to being sworn in, McCann (JM) complained to multiple police officers, staff, colleagues, and other individuals that the prior chief was grossly under paid and that if his salary was not adjusted to his standard than he would not work 40 hours a week. JM did exactly that, he systematically began taking days off without putting the required time off submissions to be removed from his time banks. Every officer is required to submit a request in the department time tracking system when they take a day off, without exception. Being the chief of police, all of the top ranking personnel and his staff would know that he was not at work. It is a common practice that when a ranking officer is off for a regular duty day, the next higher ranking officer would get higher position pay, which is believed to be part of the police contract. When the chief of police is not at work for any of his regular scheduled days of work, the highest ranking Captain would get higher position pay. The three Captains this effected are M. Failing, R.Watkins, and L. Palmer. The only way these officers would get approved for higher pay was if JM was not at work at the police department facility. There are occasions where the chief maybe at training, meetings, seminars, etc in which a captain would get chiefs pay, but those are scheduled and should be documented in emails, time tracking, scheduling.

A review of payroll records indicates that JM took around 68 days off in which he received his regular pay, without any time being removed from his earned time banks and the captain that took on the chiefs responsiblity was paid at the chiefs rate of pay. That means two officers were paid chiefs pay for those days. This information can be explained and confirmed by the Lorain auditor. If any officer except JM took time off and failed to put in a request, he would seek a criminal charge against that officer. It is rumored that the mayor, safety director, and law director know about this information and have ignored it or justified it, but has now stopped it. If it was legal or proper why would the practice be stopped. This list of ex officers and current officers can verify that JM told them that he would not work 40 hours a week until he gets a large raise, which he did!

R.Watkins, M.Failing, A. Cornwell, J. Fleming, E.Super, L.Palmer, E.Sivert, D.Reinhardt, D.Smith, R. Resendez, along with payroll staff, and city officials.

If Chief James McCann, claimed he worked from home or was working outside the office on every occasions, he lied. The information is in the enclosed documents, when a captain was paid higher position pay, JM was not at work, its that simple. If there is a legitimate reason for JM to be away from the police department than there should be a record , email, calendar, notes, or verbal notification to his captains. If a proper investigation is conducted these current and ex officers will not lie and the proof is in the documents, emails, phone records, etc.

I wonder how the tax payers in Lorain would feel if they knew they were paying a public employee to work “part time” and not only receive full pay, but cause other public officials who are below him to automatically make more money while he shirks his duties. JM might claim that that he is entitled to unaccounted time off with pay because he has to attend to his other duties, but I don't believe any other department leader (water, street, etc) get that benefit. And JM shouldn't either. He makes considerably more than his captains (according to publically available sources he makes more than $168,000 a year, which makes him the second highest paid public employee in the county, right behind the coroner. According to those sources he makes as much as the governor)

If the mayor or law director try to justify this behavior, they should be investigated. Please look at the documents and question the right people.

This should be properly investigated. The tax payers deserve transparency! No one is above the law!
